Social Networking by Student-Athletes Contract

In an effort to foster good sportsmanship and to deter the need to administer consequences, the Sunrise Mountain Spiritline recommends the following guidelines as best practices for the use of social media by Sunrise Mountain students. For the purposes of these guidelines, social media means any form of electronic communication through which users create online communities to share information, ideas, personal messages, and other content, including, by way of illustration and not limitation, social networking sites such as Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and Tumblr. Sunrise Mountain & the Sunrise Mountain Spiritline respect the right of its students to use social media. However, it is important for Sunrise Mountain students to understand the need to exercise care in setting appropriate boundaries between their personal and public online behavior and to understand that what may seem private in the digital world can often become public, even without knowledge or consent. Sunrise Mountain students who use social media must remember that any information posted reflects on the entire Sunrise Mountain community and, as such, is subject to the same behavioral standards set forth in the Sunrise Mountain Student-Athlete Handbook; the Arizona Interscholastic Association (AIA) Rules and Regulations; District Board Policies; and state and federal.

BEST PRACTICE FOR SOCIAL MEDIA USE:

These guidelines are intended to provide a framework for Sunrise Mountain students to conduct themselves safely and responsibly in an online environment. As a Sunrise Mountain Student-Athlete or co-curricular participant, you should:

- 1. Be Aware that Privacy Settings are NOT Foolproof. Sunrise Mountain students are highly encouraged to use privacy settings on social media sites. However, Sunrise Mountain students should be aware that privacy settings are not foolproof. Although social media sites provide their users with privacy improvement updates, the changes occur frequently and can get complicated. Even if you diligently monitor your privacy settings, it's best to assume that anything you post may potentially be seen by your school, your parents and strangers.
- 2. Avoid Posting Confidential Information. Be aware of the kind of information you are posting on social media sites. Posting information such as your date of birth, address, phone number, class schedule, social security number, bank account number, etc. is NOT recommended. Once such information is posted, it becomes the property of the social media site.
- 3. Avoid Unprofessional Public Profiles. Any information you put on social media sites is considered public information and may be viewed by members of the public. Be mindful of the image you create for yourself online. Potential, current and future employers as well as college admissions recruiters may access the information you put on social media sites.

4. Avoid Posting Illegal Activities. Photos posted via social media become the property of the social media site. You may delete the photo from your profile but the photo remains on the social media site's server. Internet search engines such as Google or Yahoo may still find that image long after you have deleted it from your profile. In addition, even if your profile is set to private, a friend can always download and save incriminating photos that third parties, such as the authorities, can use against you in the future. Sunrise Mountain students should avoid the following:

- Incriminating photos or statements depicting violence; hazing; sexual harassment; vandalism; stalking; underage drinking; selling, possessing, or using controlled substances; or any other inappropriate behaviors.

5. Avoid Bullying\Threats of Violence. While Sunrise Mountain students have a right to free speech, that right is NOT unlimited. Bullying is a serious problem and is not limited to student-to-student interactions. Vicious treatment and hateful words often lead to violence, suicide, depression, and discrimination. Sunrise Mountain students should avoid the following:

- Derogatory language or remarks about teammates, coaches, students, staff members, athletic administrators, or representatives of other schools;
- Demeaning statements about and/or threats to any third party; and
- Creating serious danger to the safety of another person or making a credible threat of serious physical or emotional injury to another person.

Sunrise Mountain students should be aware that if their conduct is deemed inappropriate, such conduct may be subject to consequences, not only by school authorities, but also by law enforcement agencies.

6. Avoid Lying, Cheating & Plagiarizing. Again, all information posted on social media sites is considered public information. It may be viewed by third parties and used against you. It is best to assume that anything you post may be seen by your school, your parents and your peers.

SMHS Spiritline is requiring that any student-athlete that is participating in the program is to follow the Spiritline page for both Cheerleading and Pom on Twitter and Instagram. If "Finstas" are created in order to avoid this requirement immediate demerits will be enforced.
