Good Morning Centennial Families,

Remember that this coming Friday, November 6th is the final day to switch your Coyote's instructional status for Spring Semester. If you wish to switch your child into or out of virtual learning for January, please complete and sign this change form and submit it to Centennial's receptionist by the end of the day on Friday. If you do not wish to change your Coyote's instructional status, no action is needed.

As we shared last week, Centennial will host a 6pm online community forum tomorrow evening to provide information and answer questions about the plans for Spring Semester instruction.

	Online Community Forum:
	Choosing an Instructional Status for Spring Semester
	Wednesday, November 4, 2020: Live from 6-7pm Click Here to Join Available for playback after 7pm

Send Us Your Questions Now

Do you have questions or suggestions to share regarding Spring Semester instruction? Please click here to provide those questions now so that we can review and build answers into our presentation tomorrow.

PUSD Q&A: Thursday, November 5th at Noon

Remember that our district will also offer a Live Q&A with high school leaders at Noon on Thursday, Nov. 5 which you may access via our district website. This video will also be available for playback immediately, in case you miss it.

Thanks for your engagement and partnership as we pursue improvements for second-semester learning.

Mr. Hollabaugh
