

Marching Band Showcase | Oct. 25

Join us for the inaugural Marching Band Showcase to spotlight all seven of Peoria Unified's award-winning marching bands in one central location. At this showcase, admission is free for the community and attendees can witness performances by all high school marching band students throughout Peoria Unified. The event begins at 6 p.m. at Peoria High School

Community members can also witness the inaugural class of Raymond S. Kellis' Unified Marching Band. Raymond S. Kellis launched this unique program through the Special Olympics, where students with special needs partner with general education students, creating friendships and opportunities for special needs students to participate in activities and athletics on campus.

Performance schedule is as follows:

- 6:00 p.m. – Centennial High School, directed by Mrs. Kate Menasco
- 6:20 p.m. – Liberty High School, directed by Mr. Richard Ebersole
