Creating a Culture of Achievement through Coyote Pride

March 30, 2020

Good Afternoon Centennial Parents and Guardians,

Today Governor Ducey and Superintendent Hoffman extended our statewide closure through the end of the school year. This result disappoints us, but we're committed to supporting your Coyote, as we all strive to slow the spread of COVID-19.

Today's announcement strengthens our commitment to the at-home learning opportunities we began sharing with you and our students today. I hope you'll encourage your Coyote to engage daily with the activities Centennial teachers provide, which can help struggling students to earn passing grades and enrich all students, better preparing them to succeed next year.

Both StudentVue and Office365 offer mobile device apps accessible in the Apple and Google Play stores. Students must use their PUSD username and password to log on.

We know you likely have questions about what this means for many of our year-end activities, such as graduation and prom. We'll build continued updates into the website and do our best to address questions and concerns as quickly as possible.

Thank you so much for your support. Remember that we are here to support you and your family too! Teachers, administrators, and counselors are an email or a phone call away. Please visit the district website, www.peoriaunified.org/coronavirus for details on free meals, home learning, and other community resources.

Thank you,

Mr. Hollabaugh
Interim Principal
